WSOTC President's Message

The first of July brings a new fiscal and a new 'political' year to WSOTC. This year we have some new officers and two new board of directors. Returning to the board as treasurer after a long hiatus is Sue Cox. Sue has been a member since 1972 and has dedicated much to the sport of dogs. On the board as members at large are Neil Evans and Karen Snee. The club looks forward to benefiting from their experience and fresh ideas. Nancy Light has dedicated many years to WSOTC and returns as Vice President. Janice Bergman, another long time member, is returning as club secretary. Much appreciation is due to retiring club president, Michelle Fuqua, retiring club treasurer, Ingrida Robinson, and retiring board member, Amanda Buse. Though leaving the board they will remain active in important club activities. Thank you!

I am Terrie Sato the club's new president. Though I've only been a member since 2013, I have participated in WSOTC trials since the early '90's. I have competed with a Bernese Mountain Dog, Labradors and Golden Retrievers. Like most of you, I have been a dog lover for my entire life. This club's history dating back to 1946 when the sport of obedience was relatively new, has drawn me to it. I have reaped the benefits of WSOTC's dedication to dog training and performance events. While scrolling through the membership I am in awe of the long standing members and the effort they have put into promoting the trained dog. I am happy to share in the club's history and take my turn in promoting not only dog performance events, but more importantly, the trained dog as a valued family member.

The board looks forward to hearing from the membership. We would love to hear your thoughts and ideas as to ways to promote WSOTC and the benefits of dog training. Our event venues have become more isolated over the years. It would be fun to hold some training days along with general membership meetings in some parks or dog friendly malls where the public could view and ask questions. My goal is to hold a few meetings in varied locations to make it easier for members to attend.

We will be holding a general membership meeting to celebrate our 'old dogs' in September. Watch for more information as the details come together.

~Terrie~

From Membership Chair

Please welcome Rachel Hubbard to WSOTC membership. Rachel lives in Redmond, though is currently away on a grand trip around the country in her motor home participating in many obedience trials and just having earned her Golden, Bullet's UD. She will be ending in Maryland at the Golden Retriever National Specialty in October then heading home. Rachel is interested in working for membership, seminars, and obedience trial committees.
Her contact information is in the roster, which has been updated on the website. I know I have promised this before, but I do plan now to have some hard copies of the roster for our next meeting on September 24, or contact me and I may be able to get one to you earlier.

Agility Report
by Nancy Light

It looks like we had an especially successful Agility trial in July, with a big increase in the number of runs, and consequently an increase in financial net gain to the Club. Judges Dan Butcher and Art Brest had some very interesting and challenging courses and all went smoothly despite the higher number of runs. I believe the decision to move our trials indoors after a long history of outdoor trials, was responsible for the increase as well as making it easier for the ring crew for setting up the rings on Friday and taking things down. In addition, we do have an increasing age for exhibitors and I think many are happier not having to bring canopies to set up. Some exhibitors are not comfortable running on grass, especially in the morning when it can be wet with dew. While it was fairly warm inside the arena in the afternoon, I do think it was easier on both dogs and people not having to run in the sun. Of course there is always the possibility of rain, even in July, which would have been another whole set of difficulties. Unfortunately we only had one MACH ribbon to award, though that means we will not have to order them for next year. Would love to see more WSOTC members get involved in this sport, one of the few that is continuing, I think, to increase entries in AKC.

AKC RALLY CHANGES SEMINAR

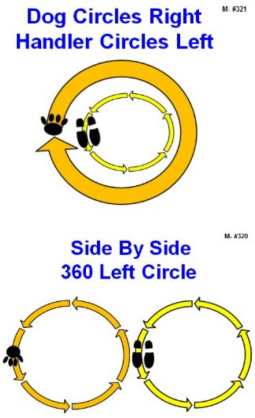
Presented by AKC Rally Judge, Debbie Addicoat

Sunday, September 3, 2017 -- 9 am to 4 pm

Location: Family Dog Training Center, Kent, WA

$50 working spot with dog (limited to 15)* / $35 auditor

Working dog teams should have Rally Advanced/Excellent skills.*



Major changes are coming to AKC Rally effective November 1, with the addition of Intermediate and Masters classes, along with many new signs. Here is a link to the Regulations effective November 1: http://cdn.akc.org/Rally/AKC1086_ROR001_Yellow_Insert.pdf?_ga=2.149031350.122119806.1500829935-1011475634.1492288276

Join AKC Rally Judge Debbie Addicoat as she walks us through these changes. She'll demonstrate the proper execution of the new signs and explain scoring. Debbie will help everyone understand the new Intermediate and Masters classes, along with the new Rally Championship title. Since Debbie also teaches Rally classes, she can give training suggestions for the new signs.

General information: Coffee, tea, soda and water, along with morning and afternoon snacks will be provided. Lunch is not provided; bring your own lunch or visit a nearby fast food restaurant. Bring your own comfortable chair, or use one of our folding plastic chairs.

Working dog teams should bring their own crate so their dog can relax when not working. Working dog teams should have Advanced/Excellent level skills (not necessarily titles). Auditors may bring dogs and crate them in our second, adjoining ring, provided they are not disruptive.

All participants will receive a photocopy of select pages from the new sections of the Rally Regulations. We recommend participants download the complete PDF and review it prior to the seminar. We will attempt to obtain new bound Rally Regulations books from the AKC in time for the seminar. We will also provide options for ordering new laminated signs and other supplies.

The seminar will be held at Family Dog Training Center, 1515 Central Ave. S., Kent, WA 98032. Register using the form on the back of this flyer or register online via the following link: http://familydogonline.dogbizpro.com/public/registration/events.aspx?event=2502
